Husband's Notes

- Based on the birthplaces for the two sons, it appears that Samuel went to Texas, where he met and married Elizabeth, and they had son Jesse there. Then, shortly thereafter, they moved back to Arkansas where son James was born. But, where did they go after that - where was this family in 1870?

Husband's Notes

- In the 1850 Marengo Co., AL, census, children Henry and Martha are listed as twins, 10 yrs old, and John and Sarah are listed as twins, 5 yrs old (in both instances, the census enumerator wrote in the word 'twins'). But, in later years, the ages given for Martha and Sarah are younger than for their twin brothers.
- Per 1900 census, Delilah had borne 5 children, with 4 living at that time. Sons James and Ben were still living at home, so either Jane, Arminta, or Georgia had died by 1900.
